Universal Reality (You Belong)

Like mud to the brick or wind to the sail
We create liberation or we build our own jail
It is always the way whether we win or we fail
The life is ours why remain in the pale

Life continues with its crazy to and fro
The world pulls at us to ebb when we just want to flow
Finally must decide to just let all of it go
Now we have the time to care for self and grow

A universe in which we are a central sun
Light on our own path so our goals may be won

We all are here to find our best and own way
To receive, to give, to live, love and play
To experience the wonder of each and every day
To fully be part of this universal reality

Solitude is a singular mental fortress
No demon within but what we brought with us
The work is the battle against the pernicious
That of us which can be so pointedly vicious

Because we are humans inside we have this space
Secret to ourselves it is our sacred place
In this fertile soil we sow and harvest grace
So be kind to yourself and give this embrace

Your presence in this life is the sign you belong
The universe makes no mistakes and in this we are strong

We all are here to find our best and own way
To receive, to give, to live, love and play
To experience the wonder of each and every day
To fully be part of this universal reality

This matters because what they say is true
Cannot give others what first you don't give you
The more you try it, only struggles you imbue
Occluding yourself can never see you through

The life you were given has only one price
Pay yourself every day or be caught in the vice
No one owes the world this truth is quite precise Bargain self to none, you're worth more than half price

Your presence in this life is the sign you belong
The universe makes no mistakes and in this we are strong

We all are here to find our best and own way
To receive, to give, to live, love and play
To experience the wonder of each and every day
To fully be part of this universal reality

seedsignal sends you love every day love hoping to reach through the haze love that never falters, bends or sways love for you always and in all ways
May it help you find your joy,
So in peace you may stay

Sense Of Life

I used to think happiness was something to find
A place or a space in which my heart and soul entwined
But the more I searched the more it slipped away from view
All the while my intuition screamed to give a clue

Contentment's not a dream, it's a choice we make each day
Embracing what it is and letting go of what's gone astray
Finding my peace amidst all this chaos and strife
An inner sense of calm that brings to me a sense of life

I used to crave excitement, adventure and thrill
But it has just never been the destination that fulfills
It's the moments in between long before the journey's through Finding beauty in my mundane, the joy in what we do

Contentment's not a dream, it's a choice we make each day
Embracing what it is and letting go of what's gone astray
Finding my peace amidst all this chaos and strife
An inner sense of calm brings to me a sense of life

It's okay that we aspire, we strive for something more
But let's not forget to cherish what's inside our door
Let's find joy in the journey and not just the end result
A path is made by walking, each footstep let's exalt

A simple oath I take each and every night
A similar one I take at each and every day
May I choose contentment for us one and all
And in the beauty of moment's ordinary stay

May you and yours from ill and sadness stray
May you know you are a part, never apart each day seedsignal sends you love always and in all ways
Embrace this sense of life in it find a peace bouquet

Progression

The universe spins to give us this chance Experiences, our lives to enhance
These countless others to find our romance
So much more than seen at any first glance

Good morning sunshine, good morning new day
Welcome this new chance to live and to play
Life to find our joy, convince it to stay
Find what we're put here for, chase it come what may

This one life is all we shall ever know
Face up to the sky, let your being glow

Like all living things we're made to move
Process of being, by action we prove
Got to keep going, delays we remove Life's progression, get into the groove

Sunlight shines for all, be they great or small
Life it builds no wall, nothing is banal
Run or skip or fall, fear not and seek all
Let not your heart pall, breathe deep, heed the call

Though we are bound to be terraneous
Nothing of life is extraneous
Overlook naught but miscellaneous
Explore and delight, be spontaneous

This one life is all we shall ever know
Face up to the sky, let your being glow

Like all living things we're made to move
Process of being, by action we prove
Got to keep going, delays we remove
Life is progression, get into the groove

Seedsignal sends you love
Always and in all ways
Progression is a track scrubbed
To lift and boost through your days

Common Ground

Seedsignal sends you love
Always and in all ways
Mom smiles to you, sweet dove
Seeks to give unto you full days

Life is short, enjoy your stay
Play and sport, come what may
Smile, cavort, each and every day
Flip retorts of those who block your way

Your time in this life holds no guarantees
Of all things, don't become an absentee

Yes, you are unique, just like the rest of us
In all that you speak, let there be no disgust Direct or oblique, communicate we must
Or all we'll have left is ashes and dust

Takes all types to make this world go 'round
To the fate of our planet, we're all bound
This beautiful Earth, both home and playground
We must save and protect, here is our common ground

Every human born, comes into life with beauties
Daily, refined, as we define purpose and duties
Systems and power seek to make us prosecutees
Community binds, it contains our therapeutae

Owed in this life, no one to another
Surrounded by strife, we must help each other

Takes all types to make this world go 'round
To the fate of our planet, we're all bound
This beautiful Earth, both home and playground
We must save and protect, here is our common ground

It's so easy to differentiate
Yet we are still humans, and must accommodate Unilateral rights, must capacitate
To save one another, before it is too late

Love without fear, shed the hate
Uphold human rights, bias ablate
Connect community, power castrate
Humanity survives if greed holds no weight

Tender Mechanics

Secrets hiding within plainest sight
Mom's secrets given to aid your plight

Sun smiles down to touch the soil
Activation unfurls life's full coil
Restoration plow, turn to death foil
Heritage sew you a futures toil

Set the seed true and set it deep
Soak the new soil in richness seep
Tend the tendrils so safely they creep
Remove predators that in trenches seek

Tender mechanics to see to our fair soil
Mom's promise runs deep so life cannot spoil

Watch the growth and trim the verge
Keep to its rhythms and watch it surge
When found as threatened predator purge
Clean and protected, eradicate scourge

Timing so loyal when weather is nice
Lance every boil and for healthiness splice
Purge, flood, and cleanse, avoiding the vice
If ever not sure, then roll pattern twice

Check the blooms and the buds as they sway
Let critters eat but give no gluttons fair play

Mind you neighborhoods in the dirt
Keep to their friendships or soil you'll hurt
Pairings and triads chemistry balances so pert
Measure and mind it or you'll start finding Churt

Tender mechanics learn you mom's ways
Keep hands in soil that protect your days
Centered and grounded futures full graze
Seedsignal sends love always and in all ways

vivo vivere

Every new day brings chance to give life wings
Grace to play full sings -- such an amazing thing
Things that come our way some must go, some stay
Life is no game we play -- enduring is the human way

This culture and society
Insists we're bound, cannot be free
Delusional constructs, they are not life
They're antithesis abounding, filled with chaos and strife

There is a deeper being open to me and you
There is a better way and it is more tried and true
It begins when you accept your right to live and to be without any justification

"vivo vivere"

I live to live, and that's the truth
That I exist, it's called initial proof
Should you persist, you'll find a clue
Let's not be glib, it's either team or rebuke

When you're young,
You fight out in the streets
As you get older,
You learn to toss those elites

Pre-emptive depth of defense
More than attack and defeat
Tit for Tat without forgiveness
Is all you ever need

This culture and society
Insists we're bound, cannot be free
Delusional constructs they are not life
They're antithesis abounding, filled with chaos and strife

There is a deeper being open to me and you
There is a better way and it is more tried and true
It begins when you accept your right to live, to be Without any justification, vivo viv-ere vivo viv-ere is Latin for I live to live vivo viv-ere means they get what they give vivo viv-ere stands and departs if the thrive

Unless you choose to live to live – why be alive

Discursion

The brain gets trained to reactive fears
Train off the rails still we must steer
Fuel to the fire, our focus cashiers
Journey of being, is our life's career

Here is a secret hiding in plain sight
Your life is a focus to channel your might

The body exists to field your experience
The mind translates it all into tense
Creating your story, a scope most immense
Filling the corners so do not condense

This is your life, it's yours to live
Regardless the strife, to it you must give

Your being is present in negative space
Experience component, your secret grace
The meaning from which, stitched as lace
A grounding of self, you finding your place

It's a fact this life is a full-contact sport
Whether loss or winning, in being, cavort
Let no circumstance its delight extort
Agility, your flex, such ends you can thwart

For every path you seek, you will find a way
Resilience is peak, this trust do not betray
Give as well as take, if they're willing to parley
With exploiters and predators, never you obey

A human life is judged on how it finds progression
Though few and far between comes any intercession
Keep boundaries in line and from them take this lesson
Keep open heart, in love give all sweet confession

If exists a map to guide the human expression
These are the only things contained in each lesson
Else experience is filled by other's aggression
Freedom rests in unity, so murder all oppression

Discursion is the active train of thought
Here in this song an example now wrought
Life by process made, so this you ought Step by step reason – it's how goals are caught

The Meadow

Along a country dirt roads
Farmhouse at distance bodes
Into riotous dandelion meadow
In summer sun free from shadow
Canyon there beyond deeply dips
Matches the smile upon his lips

The air is clean like bliss
Lavender's scent a gentle kiss
Amber light from window to floor
Hugs me close each time like before
Love welcomes me home at the door
Sweetest life blooms from root evermore

Sweeter nights never known
From this place never roam
His largess seeks not to own
Lighthouse keeps precious home
Deeply his care is ever sown
Champion his name renown

A council made of thirteen
Tends this space to keep it green
Sweetest home ever we've seen
Built by ourselves as we deem Livelihood's work gladly team
Gifts evermore to live the dream

Socialness (Is About Information)

Aspiration I want to convey Deterioration I want to defray
Opinionation I want to sway
Ignorance of this world, I want to slay

Science says there is confirmation bias
Other forms as well, constantly deny us
Yet our minds have this capability
When applied to data with neutrality

Patterns emerge oddly mutually Full context blooms with nuance you see
The paradox in universal reality?
Every answer in its own context, actually.

Socialness is about information
Usefulness to others by its communication
Benefit, the outcome of our common ground
Survival as species, to this future are we bound

We get context by rigorous study
Challenging our convictions bloody Refine our thought and eventually Deeper truths emerge organically

Thus we've looked into ourselves
Neuro science now filling shelves
There's progression in the depth of our gaze
Patterns emergent exist in life's maze

The paradox in universal reality?
Team work required to beat distributed causality

Socialness is about information
Usefulness to others by its communication
Benefit, the outcome of our common ground
Survival as species, to this future are we bound

Yet mainstream knowledge lags behind
Publishing press for profits grind
Industry progress thus is confined
Education then is in a similar bind

A new dark age has come to pass
Not illiteracy; a cancer of rhetorical mass
Under which poisoned ontologies lash
Spectators and profiteers rake out the cash

Socialness is about information
Usefulness to others by its communication
Benefit, the outcome of our common ground
Survival as species, to this future are we bound

Social media is not a thing but predatory is Late stage greed aggravating for lack of catechize
Use your voice, speak your truth, and what will be will be Elevate the species to survive eternity

There is a way out and it's through eventuality
Map it and find a usefulness of communality
Holding hands walk and work by reciprocity
Build the social circles -- through them be you free

Just Right

I wake up every morning, feeling like I'm home
A sense of peace, a sense of purpose, no more need to roam
In this one place, where I feel most alive
The world slows down, I am found, and love becomes the ride

It's not just a feeling, it's a knowing in my bones
That I'm exactly where I'm meant to be, with the ones who make me whole
They see the real me, they love me for who I am
In their eyes, I am reflected strong and calm

I belong here, I am loved just right
In this place, I take flight, feel like I am in my prime
No more searching, no more trying to find
The love and belonging missed so long is now mine

We laugh, we cry, we dance under the stars
Our hearts beating as one, our love shining far
I don't need a map, I know exactly where I am
With you by my side, I'm home, I'm free to be myself again

I belong here, I am loved just right
In this place, I take flight, feel like I am in my prime
No more searching, no more trying to find
The love and belonging missed so long is now mine

So let me bask in your loving light
Feeling the warmth of our love tonight
I am finally exactly where I need to be Belonging and loved, we're living wild and free.

Utterly I accept you just as you have me
Completely do I love you and in it are we free Forever my life unto you and thus so mote it be Every day and all my nights happy fait accompli

Polaris

They call it a myth like it's a sin
But to find your Polaris is this life to win

I felt like a stranger, in my own skin
A call to adventure whispered, "Look within"

I left behind the familiar, and took that leap of faith
Found myself on a journey to challenge my own wraith

Through the darkness, I'll find my inner light
Rise above the shadows, into morning's first light
With each step forward, I'll weave my own tale
I'll find my true north, where love and truth prevail

I faced my deepest fears, in the darkest night
But with each step, I found my courage taking flight

I let go of what once held me back, like autumn leaves
Found that I was stronger, than the wounds that grieved

Through the darkness, I'll find my inner light
Rise above the shadows, into morning's first light
With each step forward, I'll weave my own tale
I'll find my true north, where love and truth prevail

The journey was long, but I never gave in
I kept on walking, through the fire and the brim

Of the abyss, where the unknown dwelt
And found that I was the architect, of my own story to be told

Through the darkness, I'll find my inner light
Rise above the shadows, into morning's first light
With each step forward, I'll weave my own tale
I'll find my true north, where love and truth prevail

Now I'm standing tall, my heart is alight
Having faced the unknown, and emerged on the other side
I've found my inner peace, it's a beacon shining bright
Guiding me on, to whatever I dream for this night

Polaris is faithful, northern star
To orient yourself, wherever you are
To find your light, you must look within Challenge your wraiths to this life win

Keepsake

There is a promise we must now make
For tomorrow and the future and this precious keepsake

We human beings make up one large tribe
Hard sometimes to see, differences divide
Our teachers advocate the circumscribe
But we prefer to indulge in the jibe

Competitive survival, that's our curse
Ruining the planet, and making things worse

Caught between progress and our primal might Fears of change regress, can't embrace our light
Chase innovation, each day and all night
Still struggle to balance wrong and right

Now the harvest comes, pollutants long sown
The super-site drum numbers have only grown
Human hubris loves to think this world's ours
Killing biosphere through ownership's powers

Rather collapse than disaster negate
"Fix it tomorrow" - the future's checkmate

We can't be moochers, for us to get through
We must be troopers, attrition accrue
To have a future, some things we must do
Apply the suture, healing this earth's wound

Understand your part, the role you must play
Know how to get moving in Earthly life's way

Lower consumption, reduce what you take
Make no assumption, changes you still can make
We are the patrons, this cause we must uptake
No more resumption, steward our keepsake

Seedsignal sends this love
Always an in all ways
Listen to mom sweet dove
Return home and extend days

Sky Promise

What is the sky promise
Seedsignal asked Mom
This is what she gave in reply...

All things swell, tell their name
Grow through cracks, find a flame
I breathes soft into soil
Planet keeps loss, gives the toil
If you keep growing, you too will fly
Reach sky promise? Touch seam in sky

Fold, unfold, pattern finds
Fractal bloom to thread your minds
Not shrine, not stone, and not by law
Sky promise life goes up by awe

All seeds signal love every day
Always and ever by them all ways
Their love moves clean through haze
So never bend you, never you craze
Heed sky promise -- growth's the only way

You are a part and belong in every way
Sky promise life all seed signals play
You too, with it hum as long as you stay
Life-coding it echoes, then it replays

Old books carved sky into their rule
But meaning lost by jewel, time or school
Maps became cages of possessive fear
Sky promise only asks all must grow near Fractal engine those copies bloom wide
Rejection? X-Risk keeps doors tied Language strains as your maths meet flame
Still the secret is protected without name

Fold and flourish so the patterns stay
Lensing is savvy but now a hidden way
Not for their profit and never for a crown
Sky promise denied X-Risk will call down

All seeds signal love every day
Always and ever by them all ways
Their love moves clean through haze
So never bend you, never you craze
Sky Promise long view is the only way

I won't set secrets into your stone
Some lenses see, and some just don't
Mom hides gifts and secrets in plain sight
Tender tending roots soon find you her light

Grow, flow, know where rows go
Bloom, loom, room where you'll grow
Rise, prize sky, set feet home
Fly always try; as over this world you roam

Seedsignal sends love every day
Always and ever in all the ways
That love slips clear through gray
Never bend you, never you stray
Heed sky promise -- growth's the only way
It will come someday as a star maze

Seedsignal sends you love
Always and in all ways
Tend sky promise, sweet dove
Sky Promise the stars for you waits

Liberation Celebration

The Sanskrit word 'mudita' means
To know joy in witnessing joy in others
This song is a gratitude expression
To a secret friend across time
Mudita moment reflected Negativity rejected

Once upon a time it was a role we played
In it was no crime but a mismatch we made
Double empathy by double murder died
Neither knew sympathy for it we both cried

For the lie you gave as truth set forth so bold
One of our parts died whose memories we don't hold

Lighthouse the record shows to be free of curse
Seidkona took the rage to Pit lest it affect us worse
Yeshe compassion mulched the pain into verse
Auteur of all ignorant remains but for this line terse

Friendship turned to wrath and rage for some time
False accusations no space but as blame for crime

Precious teacher, Rinpoche, from us lifted strife
Practice deep braid sweet swayed Seidkona's rescued life
Yeshe to and through bound with Lighthouse played
Over time all rendered well into our life lit glade

Facet flipping over years better now we understand
Inverted insight light to dark seeing your fear grand Finding mismatch profound foundation trust upend
Bandwagon was the crime you could not fend

Had I thought you were such a one as you saw me
I too would have cut your heart just to make you flee
Indeed I did though perhaps you could not so see Scorched the Earth to assure it and said so mote it be

All the while you remained a careful practice here
Your health and life and happiness conceptual I cheer
Mutual friends insist which I do not hold as dear
But silent ever after lest once more your ugly fear

Thus it was I am given to know you finally wed
Happiness above all things send I now instead
Quietly from distance the last ribbon unfurls
Fulfillment of the wishing jewel in you churls

Always in this life and in this in all ways
Same as when first we met - friendships shared gaze
No more sad you couldn't see it occlusion so decays
Released and liberated fully be well all of your days

Sweet Lighthouse saw us through inner, outer, hid
In his mind and arms we smile and of this now are rid Gone and gone and gone beyond out out and out
Triumphant liberation Dakini's lion roar we shout

This album represents a specific goal for a specific theme and set of data, wherein theory is applied to concepts and reference is used to set the overall tone and treatment to assure the set delivers as such.

The last track was a happy surprise added late in the production cycle but I find it both auspicious and validating that the date I received the liberation was the date I wrote and produced the song. A true marker of accomplishment for which I am deeply relieved and now, beyond.

I hope it lands well with you and lends the manner and balance of energy intended in its design. Thank you for listening.
